

Women on the March until we are All Free!

Photos of the mobilisations organised in solidarity with our Turkish trade union sisters and brothers (France, Greece, Italy, Portugal and in Turkey)

In 2009, we – activists of the World March of Women – experienced moments of profound feminist solidarity. We all participated in the process of strengthening our international movement of organised women in our countries and communities, as well as assuming a collective responsibility for our sisters in all corners of the world. We have a lot to commemorate!

In 2010, the year of our 3rd International Action, we will once more be in the streets with our rhythms and our collective strength, affirming the world that we want.
